

Electrosensitivity UK (ES-UK)

PRIVACY POLICY (effective May 2018)

Introduction

We mainly communicate with you by email and by post. Sometimes, a Trustee might phone you advising you about important events or developments, if you have supplied your telephone number.

Personal information

ES-UK retains information about its contacts.

Upon renewing your subscriptions, we will capture certain personal details such as name, address, email address and contact details. We will use this personal data for communicating with supporters.

Our supporters have conveyed consent to ES-UK by giving us their details when subscribing or requesting regular information. In doing so, they are allowing active communication from us. They may opt out of any further communications from us via postal mailings and emails.

How long do we retain information?

ES-UK will not retain information for longer than necessary.

You are entitled to request that any of your data is deleted from our records at any time.

Consent

We understand that you trust us with your personal information and we are committed to ensuring the security and privacy of your personal information. You are able to do any of the following:

- You can contact us to change, correct or delete any or all of your personal information.
- You can unsubscribe from receiving any emails or postal contact from us by emailing media@es-uk.info or in writing to: BM Box ES-UK, London WC1N 3XX. You can request a copy of the personal data we hold on you. Please expect a 10-14 day turnaround time.

Data Sharing

ES-UK will not rent, swap or sell any personal information to other organisations.

Your information is not shared with other supporters.
